Additional comments

3. Sounds like a good idea; but "non-partisan" is wishful thinking.

9. Probably agree, but uncertain about the details.

13. I am uncertain about this. We are not a referendum state. Legislators need to do their job and be held accountable by the people. This might be an appropriate exception.

14. We voted 96-23 in the House to cap it on 11/28/11; but the Senate went home without acting on it.

17. Planned Parenthood, along with abortion, should be outlawed.

19. I agree, but realize that currently people would just end up paying it to the federal government. So the federal estate tax should also be abolished.

21. We have term limits, known as elections. The people have the right to vote for their choice. I pledge to run for no more than 5 terms, and thus term limit myself.

23. But the rate should be reduced, or corporate and personal income tax eliminated. We at least need to have the lowest rate in the nation.

24. But we need to eliminate all "non-partisan" elections.

25. I have already submitted a bill to give a tax credit to parents who home school or send their kids to private schools, and to businesses who fund such scholarships.

26. It should be encouraged, not mandated.

27. But it should not be based on any income other than that on which we pay taxes and dues to the retirement system.

30. We may have to honor it for those already vested, but abolish it for new teachers coming into the system. Teachers should have to keep their jobs by doing their job just like the average worker.

32. Incentives should be outlawed. Lowering or eliminating personal and corporate income taxes for everyone will help our existing businesses and make us more attractive to others.

34. I'm not sure what the right amount would be; but this seems exorbitant.
