Additional comments

6. I don't think the state should be involved with marriage or any other personal or private choices.

8. It is wrong to punish a few that may be innocent this way. There is no taking it back. Also there is a history of racial bias.

9. But also decrease it significantly prior to doing this.

13. There should be an amendment against any state or local government accruing debt.

21. We have voting to regulate how long one person stays in office, but if a majority of the states population were to vote for it I would support it.

30. I think it should be done away with entirely and parent should be able to decide which teachers stay and which go.

34. Too high for the results we the taxpayers are getting.
