Williams, Feiogka

Plavix
(clopidogrel bisulfate)

Full description of the incident (completed by person)

Feiogka Williams came in to vote & had been removed due a felony conviction. Said his rights had been restored but had no proof. Leslie Wright, obviously an activist, began to argue that I was denying him his rights to vote. Told me I was wrong & had not been properly trained. I threatened to call Chicago & the TV.

Response to the incident at the precinct (completed by person taking report)

Called Tony for directions as to what I should do. Told to let him do same-day registration. He then did not want to show me any proof of residence. His girlfriend & the activist said I didn't need to. He finally gave me his license, registered & voted. He didn't really want to sign the ATV. He asked for my name before he left.

Full description of the incident: (completed by person reporting the incident)

Voter came in and challenged to ballot assistance. We misunderstood the ballot assist, saying a person could vote any individual race if they chose "straight party". We then told Voter to vote as he wanted to and we would see if the M100 accepted it. It did.!! Voter left happy he taught us something.
