QUESTION:

As you may know, North Carolina does not currently require a government-issued photo ID in order to vote, but voter ID will be required beginning in next year's election. Do you believe the requirement to show ID to vote will be more likely to stop voter fraud or prevent eligible voters from casting a ballot?

QUESTION:

When it comes to the issue of voter fraud in North Carolina, which opinion comes closest to your own opinion:

There is virtually no voter fraud in North Carolina. Laws like requiring photo ID are unnecessary because there is no vote fraud to prevent.

Voter fraud in North Carolina is a real threat to the integrity of our elections and therefore requiring a photo ID is justified and logical.
