Thinking now about the coronavirus pandemic...

Q11. North Carolina entered Phase 2 of Governor Cooper's economic reopening plan on Friday, May 22nd. Meanwhile, other southeastern states have opened sooner, such as South Carolina and Florida, which began broadly reopening on May 4th. In your opinion, has Governor Cooper's economic re-opening been too fast, too slow, or about right?

Q12. Phase 2 of Governor Cooper's economic reopening plan allows restaurants, salons and pools to open at 50 percent capacity. However, other venues such as gyms, movie theaters, museums, and playgrounds must remain closed through at least June 26th. Do you believe that this phase of the economic re-opening is too restrictive, not restrictive enough, or about right?

Q14. As of May 22nd, there are 21,780 positive cases of coronavirus in North Carolina. Meanwhile, the number of unemployed workers in North Carolina increased by 357,000 in April to a total of 573,000. Knowing that both are a priority, which do you think should be the higher priority for state lawmakers – the health crisis or the economic crisis?

Q15. On May 16th, a US district court judge ruled that Governor Roy Cooper's executive order banning indoor worship services with more than 10 people is in violation of the Free Exercise Clause of the First Amendment to the US Constitution. The judge's decision blocked the enforcement of these restrictions and allowed worship services to resume. Do you agree or disagree with the judge's decision?

Q16. The North Carolina state government is required to balance its budget every year. The current economic shutdown will make that very difficult, and it appears that the budget shortfall could be as high as $4 billion, or 16 percent of the current budget. Which approach would you prefer the state take to balance its budget during the current crisis?

Q18. Due to concerns related to the coronavirus pandemic, some public policy groups have suggested that North Carolina change to a universal vote-by-mail system in 2020. This means that all active voters would be mailed a ballot, whether they requested a ballot or not. Do you approve or disapprove of this election policy change?
